

Rome – the eternal capital of the world!

All roads lead to Rome, the eternal city!
Today's Rome is a contemporary metropolis of world fame which still reflects the various epochs of its long and colourful history in its architecture, culture and people. The city's large historical centre can be divided into many different architectural areas from Ancient Rome to Medieval times, from the Renaissance era to Baroque, Art Nouveau, Neoclassicism, Modernism, Rationalism etc. For this reason the city is so often considered a sort of living encyclopaedia covering the last 3000 years of Western art. Try to get your cultural fill but be sure to leave time for the more hedonistic activities for which Rome is famous: its wonderful sunshine and the cool fountains in small, hidden squares and the warm evening strolls through a city overflowing with areas and sights to suit every taste: Campo dei Fiori, Piazza Navona, Trinità dei Monti, Trastevere and the Pantheon are all incredibly wonderful places-probably among the most beautiful sites in the world-where people of all ages and generations divide their time between enjoying a glass of good Italian wine and a home-made gelato!

It is no wonder that our guests return home with a tear in their eye and a full heart! Besides urban feeling Rome has much more to offer: the wonderful beaches of Circeo, Sabaudia, Sperlonga, Argentario and Ponza are a great way to get away for the weekend and experience the Tyrrhenian, these beaches seem to have more in common with Caribbean islands than to playgrounds of the Romans and the civilized world. Naturally our colleagues in the school will do their utmost to help you organise such trips, whether you want to explore new and different areas of the city or venture out into Rome's surrounding region. As the saying goes 'when in Rome, do as the Romans do'. Do exactly this by overloading your senses with the glut of pleasures that the city has to offer; from the grandiose thrill of feeling centuries of turbulent history under your feet to seeing darkness descend over the city's frenetic pace which seems to slow down when the marble-white buildings and statues are beautifully lit up.
